Reading Worksheet

Units: 1/2/3

Read the following passage and answer the questions below:

Everyone has his / her own dream. Children dream of having certain jobs when they grow up at a very early age. Some of them dream of being doctors and working in hospitals. They think that helping sick people is very important. Doctors usually give sick people medicine and pills to help them become well. Others think of being pilots. They enjoy flying planes and traveling around the world. They believe that pilots like meeting people from different countries and making new friends everywhere.

Many boys think of being police officers in the future to catch dangerous people and protect their country. A lot of children dream of being teachers because they like their teachers a lot. So, they dream of working in schools and teaching students of different ages. Whatever your dream is, you should work hard to fulfill it. Always remember; nothing is impossible. So, always do your best to make your dreams come true.

Choose the suitable answer from a, b, c and d:
